

GREETINGS:

As we march into March, I hope you felt the expansive energy of Venus and Jupiter before the Sun arose this morning. Venus is radiating the values of the Pisces side of our nature (peace, love and beauty) in alliance with Jupiter in watery Scorpio, expanding the possibilities of the Piscean side of our nature. Don't waste this opportunity to get along better with even those who are difficult to be with. This aspect is in force for another 5 days and sets the tone for March, as a Full Moon in Virgo occurs at dusk, and another Full Moon ends the month of March (31st) for a second month of Blue Moons this year (January was the first).

All Full Moons are emotionally charged and bring a heightened reactivity, but the Moon in Virgo urges us to assess how comfortable we are in our bodies and with our true self in general. Virgo energy always holds us to a higher standard of behavior, intention and speech. Increase the energy of kindness, tact and goodwill as you speak with others at this time. Surpass your expectations and use communication as a power tool. Since the Sun, Neptune, Mercury and Venus are occupying watery, dreamy, creative Pisces at this time, we may see more clearly our emotional confusion. All Full Moons bring about greater sensitivity and this one is super charged with feeling and intuition. The Venus/Jupiter bonus which preceded this Full Moon will return again on June 1st following the Full Moon of 5/29. Be prepared to have a 3-month adventure in change and growth.

March is always a month of endings followed by beginnings, as one season ends and another begins at the Equinox (3/20) and the transition from watery Pisces to fiery Aries takes time to assimilate and unfolds in stages. This is an especially intense year for the transition, which I will cover in Part 2 of the March outlook which I will send you at the New Moon in Pisces (3/17).

WEEK 1 (3/1-8):

The period of unlimited change and opportunity which began at the beginning of 2018 (1/2) comes to an end on 3/8, as the first of the planets that energize us begins a retrograde period. Jupiter will go retrograde on 3/8 and for many this will feel like a welcome relief. Expansion of feeling sometimes leads to pain, doubt and confusion. As mentioned above, the Full Moon in Virgo comes with a plethora of feeling energy in Pisces and Scorpio, and it only gets more intense in Week 1 of March. This is the time to surrender illusions and replace them with intuition, creativity, and inner spiritual work, as the Sun in Pisces becomes divinely entangled with its source Neptune on 3/4. Neptune rules the hidden 6th sense, our spiritual GPS, our intuition, which is non-rational and often confusing. Since its source is our right brain, which we don't always value, this is the time to invite greater clarity on how we can be healed with its synchronistic messages and meetings with others.

On 3/5 the cosmic weather begins to change as mental messenger Mercury enters Aries, followed by Venus, the messenger of our heartfelt values on 3/6, tracking closely together the first 3 weeks of March. Their entwinement urges us to be honest and kind, speak our truth and listen with our heart. On 3/8 as Jupiter slows down and turns backward to review our lives since it entered Scorpio (10/10/17). Whatever path we entered at that time, may have bumps or forks in the road. Jupiter symbolizes expansion and the search for truth, meaning and purpose. In Scorpio Jupiter directs its expansive energy toward the dark, to and through what is in the Shadow for us. It sheds light on our blind spots.

WEEK 2 (3/9-16)

Testing times occur on 3/10 as Mercury in impulsive, brave and fiery Aries runs into stony, immovable Saturn in Capricorn revealing where we may need to review and renegotiate agreements, boundaries and responsibilities. On 3/11 Mars and Uranus create fiery support to break out of limited mindsets and explore alternative perspectives. Trust your intuition at this time and watch for synchronistic events that confirm you are on the right track. On 3/13 Venus in impulsive Aries runs up against the boundaries of Saturn in Capricorn for a lesson in reality, disappointment or decision making. Fortunately, on 3/13 the Sun in Pisces and Jupiter in Scorpio deepens and widens our perspective and our view of our possibilities. This is a magical time when the two energies of the non-rational (fire and water), align to show us clearly where we need to make adjustments.

Part 2 of March will cover in depth the energetic messages of the New Moon in Pisces (3/17), the Spring Equinox (3/20) and Mercury retrograde (3/22), as well as the second Full Moon in March (3/31). and everything in between. Since this is a long and complicated month of change and opportunity, it seemed like too much to absorb in one email. This is a good time to consider a personal consultation to help you navigate these changing times with information specific to your chart.

LANDSCAPING: Since the weather is changing rapidly, I have begun beautifying landscapes for myself and others. If I can help you in any way, please let me know. I will send some pictures with the next email so you can see Spring is on the way.

In this time of explosion of Pisces energy, I was overjoyed to read the essay in today's Daily Word written by the amazing Michael Beckwith entitled "Living in the Spirit of Renewal" which reminds us that the spring season consummates Mother Nature's evolutionary process. He writes of an intention I hope we all share:

"I am on the threshold of a deepening state of consciousness, a new state of being, and I surrender to every aspect of its unfolding."

This is certainly a timely intention for me and if I can help you in any way in your journey to authentic self-expression and wellness, please let me know. I appreciate all opportunities to help those who are seeking change and growth and ready to be "Leaping Beauties"
